Don't Stay Long.

"Don't stay long, husband," said a young wife tenderly, in my presence one evening, as her husband was preparing to go out. The words themselves were insignificant, but the look of melting fondness with which they were accompanied, spoke volumes. It told all the whole, vast depths of her woman's love—of her happiness when with her husband—of her grief when the light of his smile, the source of all her joy, beamed not upon her.

"Don't stay long, husband," and I fancied I saw the loving, gentle wife, sitting alone, anxiously counting the moments of her husband's absence, every few minutes running to the door to see if he were in sight, and finding that he was not, I thought I could hear her exclaiming in disappointed tones "not yet—not yet."

"Don't stay long, husband;" and again I tho't I could see the young wife, rocking herself nervously in the great arm-chair, and weeping as though her loving heart would break, as her thoughtless "lord and master" prolonged his stay a wearisome length of time.

O, you that have wives who say, "Dont stay long," when you go forth, think of them kindly when you are mingling in the busy hive of life, and try, just a little, to make their homes and hearts happy, for they are gems too seldom found, and when lost too seldom replaced.—You cannot find amid the pleasures of the world, the peace and joy that a quiet home, blessed with such a woman's presence, will afford.

"Dont stay long, husband"—and the young wife's look seemed to say—"for here, in your own sweet home, is a loving heart, whose music is hushed when you are absent—here is a soft breast to lay your head upon, and here are pure lips, unsoiled by sin, that will pay you in kisses for your coming back."

Think of it, men, when your wives say to you, "Don't stay long,"—and O, don't let the kind words pass unheeded as of little value, for though they may not be to you, the disappointment or the fulfillment of their simple loving wish, brings grief or joy to them. If you have an hour to spare, bestow it upon them, and the pure love, gushing from their gentle, grateful hearts, will be a sweet reward.—Olio Paragraph.

DEMONSTRATED TO A MORAL CERTAINTY.—Conductor Price informs us of an accident which took place on the Ohio and Miss. Railroad a day or two since. As his train was about turning a curve the engineer observed a man walking on the side of the track, and near enough to be struck by the locomotive. He immediately sounded the alarm—reversed the engine, and put down the brakes. Though the pedestrian evidently heard the alarm, he kept a straight-forward course, and the engineer being unable to stop in time, the locomotive struck the man and knocked him down a high embankment.

As soon as it was safe to jump from the train, Conductor Price ran to the man's assistance, and found him scrambling up the embankment.

"Are you much hurt?" asked Price.

"No," replied the man, "it will take something else than a locomotive to kill me. You see I have been used to walking on the Little Miami track, and could guess the range of that to an inch, but I have demonstrated to a moral certainty that your cars are just 18 inches wider!"

The Conductor stopped to hear no more.—Cincinnati Times.

The Boston Post is responsible for the following:

"Massa," said the black steward of a Marblehead captain, as they fell in with a homeward bound vessel, "I wish you would write a few lines for me to send to the old woman, cos I can't write."

"Certainly," said the good-natured skipper, taking his writing materials; "now what shall I say?"

Pompey told the story which he wished his wife to know, which his amanuensis faithfully recorded.

"Is that all Pomp?" asked the captain, preparing to seal the letter.

"Yes, massa," replied he, showing his ivory, "tank you, but 'fore you close him, jist say please 'scuse bad spelling and writing, will ye?"

The captain appended the postscript as desired.

NAPOLEON'S RULE.—Lafitte said that he had never been a worshipper of Napoleon's rule; but he then had an opportunity of convincing himself that the emperor possessed, in the highest degree the art of popularity: 'He was very confidential with me,' said Lafitte, 'spoke without reserve, and once made a striking remark concerning our nation.' 'To govern the French,' he said, 'one must have a hand of iron and gloves of velvet.' My readers may probably have heard this remark, but not the reply immediately made by Madame Lafitte's right hand neighbor. 'Yes,' he said, 'that is very true, but he often forgot to put on his gloves.' The remark was so apt and true that all laughed heartily. I asked my next neighbor who the witty foreigner was, and learned that it was the Marquis of Lansdowne.—Blackwood's Magazine.

MILWAUKEE:

FRIDAY:::::::::::::::::::::::::::::::::::MAY 26.

For President in 1856,
JOHN P. HALE, of New York.
FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,
GEORGE W. JULIAN, of Indiana.

The Nebraska Bill Passed.

Our readers will see by the telegraphic dispatch from Washington, that the Nebraska outrage has been consummated by the Senate, and that it only waits the President's signature to become a law. It passed on the day of the eclipse, and the sun might well hide its face at such a transaction. How many supposed, when voting for Pierce, that they were empowering him to corrupt Congress for the passage of a bill, throwing open all our free territories to Slavery? Is it not time for men to break away from a party which thus tramples Freedom under foot? What shall be done? Let meetings be held all over the free States to take counsel and organize for prompt and efficient action, for a determined resistance to the Slave Power. Let the guns fired at Washington, over the passage of this bill, be the signal of a revolution which shall sweep away Northern traitors out of Congress, and out of public life, and damn them to an infamy of fame.

We think a State Convention should be called at Madison, of all opposed to the Slave Power, who are ready to pledge themselves to work together for the overthrow of the Slaveholding dynasty. There should also be a meeting in this city. It is no time now to hesitate or falter. The battle must be fought—the enemy is before us. Let us not be cowards, but men.

Senator Dodge did not vote. Where was he?

Remember, C. C. BURLEIGH will speak on this question, to-night, at the Spring Street Congregational Church.

SIGNS.

The election of FRANCIS GILLETTE, one of the most radical of old-fashioned abolitionists in the country, from the State of Connecticut, is one of the most marked signs of the times, and is the direct product of the present Nebraska agitation. We have known Mr. Gillette long and well, and regard him as one of the very ablest and noblest citizens of Connecticut. His election is an honor to Connecticut, and he will fill the seat vacated by TRUMAN SMITH, as the Nile does, in a flood, the ordinary channel of the river of Egypt. He will be heard, too, in that Hall of grave Senators, and be respected, and will make his impress there. As long as the Free Democracy are represented by such men as CHASE, SUMNER, and GILLETTE, in the U. S. Senate, they will command the confidence of the nation.

Shall not Wisconsin send a man to represent her whose presence shall be 'apositive quantity on the side of Freedom, and who will not be trammelled by party associations with slave-drivers and slave-breeders, and be obliged to wait their movements and dance attendance on the Southern overseers?

That Indictment.

The editor of the Satanic, in defending himself for breaking the law against lottery gambling, said that our statute was similar to that of New York, and there it was legally decided that advertising such a concern as the Perham Gift Enterprise, was not a violation of law.—This question has just been decided in N. York by Judge Woolruff, on a motion to discharge Perham from arrest, and the decision appears in the New York Times. We shall see whether the Satanic goes unwhipped of justice:

"The Judge truly says, that 'if schemes like the present are successful, we may expect to see offices upon every corner, and allurements held out to attract our citizens to engage in an old vice under a new name, till this species of gambling is as common as it is pernicious.—Neither Courts nor Juries can for this reason make laws, but they may and ought to be vigilant to see that the laws we have are not violated with impunity.'"

The Judge refused to discharge him.

THE Madison Journal, in quite a lengthy article on the celebration, twice alludes to the hungry state of the visitors and the scarcity of food, and says, first, "we believe, however, that the deficiency was nothing serious," and after running over several subjects, the Journal editor, comes back to the famine again, and after making another apology for the scanty condition of the Madison larder, soothes his own mind and that of his readers with this reflection—"We have not heard of any great amount of suffering from want of food or accommodations."

That will do. Such consolations as those from a host to invited guests, after their departure, bespeak a high sense of the value of a character for hospitality.

THE Madison Argus, speaking of the extraordinary efforts of the Madison people to provide for their guests, at the Railroad celebration, says:

"Our citizens contributed liberally to the expenses of the day, and an amount which it was supposed would be sufficient. If it was not it was only because so many more were here than were expected. At any rate it was quite as great a burden as they were able to bear for the benefit of Milwaukee and the Railroad Company."

We respectfully suggest to the Argus that the less there is said about the benefits of the celebration to Milwaukee, the better. Unless it regards the leaving of several thousand dollars in Madison by Milwaukee people a benefit to Milwaukee.

PRO-SLAVERY PREDICTIONS FALSIFIED.—In Venezuela the liberated slaves continue to attend upon their masters and mistresses as before. Here is another instance of a general and immediate emancipation, taking place without any of the bloodshed and turmoil which are predicted so freely by the friends of slavery whenever abolition is talked about.

PORTRAIT OF AN EDITOR.

By one of his Family Friends.

The following life-like portrait of DANIEL SHAW, by the editor of the Menasha Advocate—of the same political faith—will be recognized for fidelity to truth, by all his acquaintances. And none will so fully appreciate its truthfulness to nature as those whose unscrupulous tool he has been. We publish it to show the estimation in which he is held by his own party:

"Daniel Shaw, editor of the Milwaukee Morning News, has been indicted by the Grand Jury for advertising lotteries. If the indictment had been for low, petty meanness, it would be far more appropriate. A more despicable, vascillating, contemptible fop never put pen on paper. His forte lies in abusing his best friends. He has neither honesty, talent, or principle—and is used as the stool-pigeon of a set of political hacks, who have long been known as fit subjects for the Penitentiary, and who will undoubtedly reach their destination, if justice follows them up. We mean what we say, and know the "ropes" of that concern too well to be mistaken, and, if occasion require, will be happy to probe still further into the rotten carcasses of its managers. Shaw has been a resident of this State about two years—having emanated from Albany, where he was engaged as an errand boy, or in some other menial employment, to Ned Croswell. Coming to Milwaukee, a perfect Broadway fop, devoid of brains, lacking the common attributes of man, and having a very large stock of brass, he was just the man for the Jenny Lind Club, which immediately hired him, and since then has made it his practice to villify and abuse the sterling Democracy of the State, who have refused to become the toadies of that cut-throat organization.—Moral principle and political honesty are strangers to him, and he might with truth exclaim—

"Not hell with all its powers to damn,
Can add one blot to the foul thing I am."

Words Fitly Spoken.

The Ozaukee Times publishes a letter from a Democrat, responding to the New York Resolutions, but in regard to the one looking to the formation of a new party, he says:

"If the north, for the protection of Freedom, must unite into a political party on the Slavery issue, the present Free Soil party is the one around which they should unite. I confess, that the more I revolve the matter, looking to the past as an exponent of the future, the less faith have I that either of the old parties can be relied on to stay the progress of Slavery. Neither of them resting any portion of their superstructure upon the principle of resistance to the slave aggressions, they have neither of them ever made a long continued and successful opposition to its encroachments. As was to be expected, each time Slavery triumphed, and at each succeeding Presidential campaign they (the whig and democratic parties,) sanctioned the triumph by acquiescing in the objects which Slavery gained. Such has been the history of both the old parties in the past, and there is every reason to fear that such will be their history in the future. From the very basis of its construction no such fears can be entertained of the free soil party; it must always be true in resisting the slave encroachments. The signs of the times portend a direct conflict between Freedom and Slavery. In that conflict the only hope of Freedom is in the free soil party; and when that battle comes, if we would have Freedom triumph, that is the party with which we must unite. These are not very flattering words to the party of which I am a member, but its past history stamps upon them the seal of truth."

FRANCIS GILLETTE.—The Boston Commonwealth thus speaks of him:

"FRANCIS GILLETTE is one of the most upright, honorable, and earnest-minded men within the circle of our acquaintance. He is a man of superior intellect and liberal education, with much dignity of character and manner, and a fine classical habit of mind. He is one of the most effective speakers in Connecticut, and will do honor to the State, at Washington.—He ought to have been chosen for the long term. He is one of the most thorough, determined, and reliable anti-slavery men in the country. He is just the sort of man who can not give way on that question, and who is utterly incapable of shrinking or faltering before any opposition, discouragement, or difficulty. For years he was the leader of the old Liberty Party in Connecticut, its constant candidate for Governor, and the indomitable champion of its principles and policy. He is now about forty-five years of age."

HARD.—Mr. Bedinger, of Virginia, our Minister to Copenhagen, has become a diplomatic Missionary of Slavery, and has been trying to convince Sir Charles Napier that Slavery was right, with what success he thus writes:

"Sir Charles looked at me a moment, smiled at my enthusiasm, and then said, 'Oh, slavery is a very bad thing, and ought to be put down!' Behold the result of all my talk! I had shaken the prejudices of the English Admiral about as much as if I had entertained him by singing 'Old Dan Tucker.' Learn from this the folly of striving with men resolved to hold their own opinions."

A large Anti-Nebraska meeting was held in New York City on Saturday, the 15th inst., composed of the most substantial men of the city. A series of resolutions were passed, among which was one pledging those present never to vote, from that hour, for any man who votes for the repeal of the Missouri Compromise, or who, directly or indirectly, aids in its repeal. We say amen to that resolution.—That's just exactly where we stand. We wo'd just as soon think of voting for Louis Napoleon for President in 1856, as for Franklin Pierce. —Ozaukee County Times.

A GOOD PROPOSITION.—The Newport, Ky., News says, "If the Slaveholders alone of Kentucky could meet together in convention, they undoubtedly would set on foot some great moral reform. We would move that they appoint a place, and fix a time for such a convention; who will second the motion?"

THE Rev. George P. Fisher has been elected Professor of Divinity of Yale College; Mr. William W. Whitney, Professor of Sanscrit, and of its application to other languages, and the Rev. Joel H. Linsley, D. D., a fellow of the College, in place of the Rev. Theophilus Smith, deceased.

The New York papers publish Senator Everett's letter of resignation. His sickness was the Southern fever, which had destroyed his own self-respect, and the respect of people generally for him. The poor-health certificate of Seward and his colleagues brought his disease to a crisis.

Returned "papers not taken from the office" must be franked. It is ruled by the Post Office Department that Postmasters on returning papers to publishers, not taken from the office, must frank them, as "on post office business."

THE Waukesha Co. Jail is without a single inmate. The morals of that community must be improving, or else rascality goes unpunished.

GEO. DELONG has been removed as Postmaster at Sylvania, Kenosha Co., and T. T. KELLOGG appointed in his stead.

Amendments Rejected.

We publish a part of the debate on the Nebraska bill, last Saturday, to show what amendments were rejected:

The Clerk read the first section of the bill, when Mr. Edgerton moved an amendment, substituting the bill heretofore passed by the House for organizing only Nebraska, contending that this had created no sectional difficulty. It did not propose to repeal the Missouri Compromise, and contained more of the doctrine of non-intervention than that before the committee.

Mr. Craige opposed the bill for reasons that he preferred the present bill.

Mr. Giddings, of Ohio, moved to strike out from the House bill the provision that when admitted as a State or States, the said Territory or any portion of the same, may be received with or without Slavery, as its constitution may prescribe. He said, the idea that we should legislate for those who are to come after us was absurd. The attempt to bind the future Congresses was in vain, and he would resist the attempt.

Mr Clingman of N. C.—I am opposed to the amendment. It was rejected. Ayes 53—Noes not counted.

Mr. Walley, of Mass., moved an amendment, to the effect that the Territory shall not, during the year 1854, be erected into a Territorial government. It was unwise to act on this matter now. If gentlemen do not think so they will before the year expires. Rejected—77 against 103.

Mr. Peckham, of N. York, offered an amendment so as to have but one Territorial government. He offered it in good faith, because he perceived the majority were doing what the Chairman of the Committee on Territories had advised them to do—namely, voting down all amendments. That gentleman had said he wanted two Territorial governments now, to prevent a fight in future. But this was a poor principle. It may be one of progression, but it is entitled to no other encomium.

Mr. Wright, of Pa., opposed the amendment, because the Territory is too large for only one government.

Rejected—83 against 100.

Mr. Mace, of Ia., offered an amendment that the Territorial Legislature shall not have power to admit or exclude Slavery at any time by law. He insisted that he wished to expose the humbug announced here in stump speeches.

Mr. English, of Ia.—I would ask my colleague whether, if the amendment should be adopted, he will vote for the bill.

Mr. Mace—I will.

Mr. English—Then I'll vote for the amendment.

Rejected—76 against 94.

Mr. Parker, of Ia., offered an amendment of bounties, with a view to encourage large free soil immigration to Kansas, to exclude Slavery.

Rejected—66 against 85.

Mr. Flagler, of N. Y., offered an amendment that this bill shall not take effect until the Indian title to lands shall be extinguished. He proposed it in good faith, as an additional reason why this objectionable bill should not be pressed through.

Rejected—63 against 84.

Mr. Fuller, of Me., offered the following: "The Legislature shall have power to establish or exclude Slavery, as they shall see proper." As a National Democrat he should like to vote for the bill, but would not, as at present advised, unless his amendment be adopted. In the spirit of kindness, he asked his friends who stood by him in the Thirty-first Congress, to yield a little to Northern feelings on the question.

Mr. Riddle, of Del.—I am opposed to the amendment.

Rejected—71 against 91.

Mr. Eliot, of Mass., offered an amendment, that the Territories shall be admitted as States without Slavery.

Rejected—Ayes, 42; Nays not counted.

Mr. Campbell, of Ohio, offered the Wilmot Proviso amendment, saying there is a spirit abroad which will raise this on banners, if with reckless hand, the Missouri Compromise shall be torn from the statute book.

Mr. Preston, of Ky., merely said he opposed it.

The amendment was rejected—Ayes 50.

Movements of the Squatter Sovereigns.

The St. Joseph's (Mo.) Gazette of May 10th, reports the proceedings of a meeting of "claimants" in the Nebraska Territory, which would seem to indicate that the squatters are not only in favor of having Slavery there, but that they are determined to transplant there the colorphobic prejudices which have so signalized Illinois and Indiana. The resolutions passed by the "Sovereigns" of modesty propose to take the welfare of the territory into their own hands, waiting for, though in anticipation of the pro-slavery action of Congress, under an organization of their own concoction, thus:

Resolved, That this meeting now proceed to elect a Register of Claims, whose duty it shall be to register all claims, and for each claim he shall receive the sum of fifty cents—not to take effect for thirty days.

Resolved, That said Register shall describe said claims in a book kept for said purpose as they shall be established by witnesses—all questions of right being settled upon the principles of the foregoing resolution.

Resolved, That when a claim is established and registered, this meeting will protect the owner thereof against the claim or claims of all persons whatsoever.

Resolved, That a violation of any principle settled by the foregoing resolutions shall place the offender without the pale of protection from this meeting.

Having elected one D. M. Johnson Register, they next resolved, "That no free negro be permitted to make a claim on this Territory!" And then they wind up with the following modest bit of "squatter sovereignty":

Resolved, That we are in favor of Douglas's bill for the organization of this Territory (!!)

This being simply a piece of forestalling slaveholding management, it is significant, and shows the importance of prompt counteracting movements by the friends of freedom elsewhere.—N. Y. Tribune.

The American Sunday School Union held its 30th Anniversary in Philadelphia, on the 16th inst. The receipts of the year have been about $296,000; expenditures nearly equal to receipts. The Society has employed, during the year, 322 Sunday School Missionaries, in 30 different States and Territories. These missionaries have established 2,012 new schools, and have visited and revived 2,961 other schools, altogether embracing 30,112 teachers, and 235,975 scholars. They have distributed, by sale and donation, $47,707 07 worth of religious books, chiefly for children and youth; gratuitously, books and tracts to the value of nearly $22,000. The value of publications put into circulation during the past year, is estimated at $172,041 30. The number of new publications are fifty-one, of which forty-one are for libraries. Of the whole number, thirty-two are original works, and nineteen, reprints. The Society now publish a complete Libary for Sunday Schools, containing 792 volumes, and three selections from the general Library, of 100 volumes each, for $10 and 75 volumes for $5, besides a large variety of elementary books, cards, hymn books &c.

HO! FOR NEBRASKA.—Mr. William Curtis, of this Village, left yesterday morning for an excursion to the much talked of Nebraska. He goes on an exploring tour, intending, should it suit him, to remove his family there this fall. He will be gone some eight or ten weeks.—Beaver Dam Rep.

The storms of last week came to a focus on Sunday morning last, and ended with a heavy shower of hail. Since then the weather has been extremely charming.—Beaver Dam Rep.

The revenue duty on sugar for the last five years has amounted to $36,000,000—over seven millions a year.

ACCIDENT ON THE MICHIGAN RAILROAD.—Three lives lost.—The evening train which left Detroit on Tuesday, at 6 o'clock, for this place, on arriving at a road which crosses the track about three miles this side of Jackson, ran over a large bull which had laid himself down upon the track, with his bak towards the approaching train. The shock threw the locomotive entirely off the track, and smashed the emigrant car to peices. The Engineer, Mr. Clock of Detroit, and the Fireman, Mr. Fuller, of Marshal, and a young man who got on the engine at Jackson to come on to Marshal, were all instantly killed, and several of the emigrants, in the car which was broken, were slightly injured.

The engineer leaves a wife and two children in Detroit, and the fireman, Mr. Fuller, had a brother killed on the road about three years ago.

The accident took place about 9 o'clock, and no vigilance on the part of the engineer could have avoided it, as there is a curve in the road at the place where the accident occurred.—Chicago Trib.

IS IT POSSIBLE.—It is currently rumored through town that the mail route from Watertown to Fond du Lac, via. this place, has been discontinued, and that after the first of July next we will be supplied from the east only by a mail three times a week from Juneau to Fox Lake. We are not prepared to believe the story, but if it is true, it is the most flagrant, wilful outrage ever committed upon the rights and privileges of an intelligent, reading people, and one which will not be quietly submitted to. The Department must be aware that the receipts at this office greatly exceed any other in the County, and we believe this and Fox Lake together do more business than all the other offices in this County, and instead of being curtailed in our mail facilities, we had asked for and had every reason to suppose they would be increased.—Beaver Dam Rep.

OUR VILLAGE.—Beaver Dam now presents an extremely lively appearance. Buildings and improvements are going on in every direction. Scores of strange faces throng our streets, some looking for locations, some visiting their friends, and others spending their time as they please. Business of all kinds is extremely lively, and money seems to be plenty.

A colony of forty-three from one neighborhood in Pennsylvania arrived here on Wednesday last, and have taken up their abode among us. There is yet room for many more, and those choosing this place for a location will find they have made a good selection. House room in this Village is extremely scarce, and a few thousand dollars could be laid out most profitably in purchasing lots and building houses to rent.—Beaver Dam Rep.

MASONIC.—The following were installed officers of Racine Lodge No 18, on Monday evening May 22d.

A. J. Redburn, W M; Wm. McConihe, S. W; G. L. Tostevin, J. W; Geo. Perkins, Treas.; Saml. Brooks, Sect'y; R. W. Rowe, S. D; James Berry, J. D; Bro. Baker Tyler; S. C Tuckerman, D. McDonald, Stewards.

The Annual Convention of the Grand Lodge of the State of Wisconsin, will be held at Janesville on the second Tuesday of June, A. D. 1854.—Racine Adv.

Lumber to Milwaukee.—From April 6th to May 15th this season W. B. Hibbard & Co., shipped from their mill here, to Hibbard & Luce, Milwaukee 503,981 ft. Lumber: 131,900 pieces lath and 28 m. shingles. This, considering the late opening of navigation, is a very fair commencement for a season's transactions. Messrs H. & L. have opened an extensive Lumber Yard in Milwaukee and will receive most of their supplies from this quarter.—Port Huron Commercial.

INVITING THE PRESS.—The Managers of the celebration of the opening of the Railroad to Madison, issued invitations to the editorial fraternity of Wisconsin, to attend their celebration on the 23d inst. This invitation was issued as a sort of card in the Argus & Democrat on Saturday evening, May 20th. It reached here on the evening after the ceremony was over.—It will reach the most of the editors of the State in the course of the present week.—Racine Advocate.

STAGE ACCIDENT.—We learn that the Sheboygan stage with thirteen passengers on board, was upset on Saturday last, at Kellogg's Tavern. Gen. Warner and son-in-law, Mr. Snow, Mr. Darling and family, a brother of the Hon. M. C. Darling, all of Massachusetts, were among the company. Mr. Snow received a severe injury in one of his ankles, a probable fracture. Mr. Darling was also slightly injured. The accident is attributed to the carelessness of the driver.—Fond du Lac Herald.

Quite a number of Vermont farmers have been here and in the vicinity, looking for farms of late. The immigration this year promises to be of the best class that has ever come to the State. There are greater numbers of the middle class of hardy, intelligent, industrious eastern farmers, just the men we want, better than capitalists and speculators, coming into the State, than during any previous year.—Madison Journal.

PROSPEROUS SIGNS.—Real-estate property continues to change hands briskly in this city, and at greatly advanced prices.

The demand for choice business lots is very active, and a greater number of new firms opening business than at any former period. This speaks well for the future prospects of our city. —Fond du Lac Herald.

UNIVERSITY BUILDING.—The bids for building the University were opened on Monday, and the bid of A. A. Bird, Esq., was decided to be lowest and the contract was awarded to him. The work we believe is to be prosecuted forthwith, and the building completed the present summer.—Madison Jour.

The travel, thus far, this season, is very brisk. Hardly a day passes that two or three extra stages are not sent out from Sheboygan loaded down with passengers, besides several expresses which always go loaded, and make their regular trips daily.—Fond du Lac Herald.

The Montreal Herald announces that the British and Russian fur colonies, and the Hudson Bay Company at Sitka, have already had an understanding that they will not go to war because their home sovereigns have a relish for that kind of sport.

On Monday afternoon, during a thunder squall to the north of New York, a flash came into the city on one of the House line Telegraph wires, entered the office on the corner of Wall street, and set fire to a file of messages hanging near the operators head.

CAPSIZED.—A small schooner belonging to J. Williams, Esq., with lumber, was capsized in a squall on Saturday last, the men clung to the boat and were picked up by the steamer Menasha and brought to port.—Fond du Lac Herald.

DROWNED.—We learn that a little girl about three years old, daughter of Mr. Miller of the third ward near the landing, accidently fell from the dock on Sunday last, and was drowned.—Fond du Lac Herald.

A splendid specimen of a man worth $2,000 in New Orleans—but worth $50,000 in Canada, was sent from this city on the underground railroad last Monday. The compromises are all repealed, fugitive slave law and all.—Racine Adv.

NEW LINE OF STAGES.—Messrs. Ormsbee and Burnham, have started a daily line of stages between this City and Berlin.—Fond du Lac Herald.

Holloway's Pills, a Certain Cure for Indigestion, Flatulency, Liver and Bowel Complaints—Mr. J. Billing, of Newton, Devon, in a letter to Professor Holloway, dated December 4th, 1852, states that he was afflicted for three years with alarming attacks of indigestion, which produced flatulency and diseased liver, and that his bowels were at times so violently affected, as to cause serious apprehensions for his life. He had medical advice without avail. At length, being advised to try Holloway's Pills, he did so, and in a very short time they removed all symptoms of disease and restored him to perfect health.

LA CROSSE AND MILWAUKEE RAILROAD.—This gigantic enterprise is moving forward with a steady pace, and soon the sound of the snorting locomotive will be heard throughout its entire length, from Milwaukee on Lake Michigan to La Crosse on the Mississippi The almost unprecedented scarcity of money in the eastern market has had but little effect on the operations of this company, and though it may for a time slightly retard their operations, yet we consider it better to suffer a little delay than submit to the ruinous sacrifices which other companies are making for the purpose of keeping up the appearance of doing something. The recent vote in Portage City, where only six votes were cast against the project of loaning the credit of the city in aid of this Company to the amount of seventy-five thousand dollars, is a gratifying indication of the confidence with which the project is looked upon in that young and growing City. The Company have now on hand sufficient iron to lay about thirty-six miles, and they will commence laying it in June and keep it up until some unsurmountable barrier presents itself, when they will only wait to overcome it. The Directors are determined not to sacrifice the stock of this road, but are confident they can finish it to Horicon this fall with the means already in their hands, and when in running order to that place the remainder of the stock will be worth far more than it will be before. Let the road be in order to carry off the crop of this section this fall from Horicon and the receipts for that item alone will be immense. We believe the Stockholders have everything to cheer them, and that their interests are committed to safe hands in the present Directors and Officers of the Company.—Beaver Dam Rep.

The Erie Rioters.—Kirkpatrick, Kilpatrick, and Lowry, the last of the Erie rioters, have been discharged on the costs of the prosecution. It will be remembered that they were out on bail for contempt of Court, in disobeying the injunction laid on the Erie railroad at Harbor Creek.

Population at Detroit.—The census of Detroit is now being taken. The returns from one ward has been completed, and estimating for the whole city by the increase in this, the Inquirer thinks the population of the city is upwards of forty thousand.

Gov. Hempstead, of Iowa, has been nominated by a democratic convention at Tripton, Cedar County, for Congress. His principal opponents were Hon. Thomas H. Benton, Jr., and Judge Williams.

Unalloyed three cent peices.—The new three cent coin, entirely of silver, has been issued from the mint. They are a different device from the old ones.

A man named Bedell, belonging to Pennsylvania, traveling on the Erie railroad, a few days since, cut his throat and then jumped from the cars, while they were going thirty miles an hour

In Austin, Texas, W. H. Cleveland, son of the proprietor of the Metropolitan Hotel, made a furious assault upon W. H. Dunham, ex-Mayor of the city, and was shot dead by the latter.

Those fine horses which N. Ehle, would not take $2000 cash in hand for, have gone to New York, for sale, in of charge H. H. Walker.—Kenosha Telegraph.

HIGH WINDS.—High west winds have prevailed for some days past, accompanied by rain, which at times fell in very copious showers.—Ozaukee County Times, 25th inst.

The editor of the Jackson (Miss.) Whig says he "has not seen a drunken man in Jackson since the Legislature adjourned."

Mr. John Crawford of Cincinnati, while putting power on to his new soda fountain, in that city, on last Friday, was killed by its bursting. The head flew out, hitting him in the pit of the stomach, and tearing out his entrails. He lived only five minutes after. Two others were badly hurt—one having his arm torn off.

The Whig State Central Committee of New Hampshire, have issued a call for a State Convention to be held at Concord, on Tuesday, the 20th day of June.

A man named Zeliff, about 60 years of age, and his wife, were instantly killed at Patterson, Sunday morning, May 21, by being thrown from their carriage while returning from church.

ECLIPSE.—This great event takes place between 3 and 6 o'clock this afternoon, without fail. It looks now, (1½ o'clock P. M.,) as if the sky would be propitious for the performance.—Admission free, and we hope everybody will be on hand, for many of us, in all probability, will not live to see the like again, as the entertainment, according to the programme, will not be repeated until 1872—18 years hence.

C. C. BURLEIGH.—This gentleman lectures again, this evening, at the Spring Street Congregational Church, on the subject of Slavery and Slavery extension in general and Nebraska in particular. We trust that all those who appreciate intellectual ability and worth, and who are opposed to the present stupendous fraud, by which Slavery is made national, and Freedom put under censure, and who are willing to show themselves on the side of free men and free territory, will attend.

"Beauty is loveliest, hidden half from sight,
And flowers are sweetest, mantled with the dew,
The firefly brightens 'neath the shade of night,
And dimples deepen to the timid view,
'Neath gauzy lace, that lets their sunshine through."

And so it is with pretty faces hidden roguishly under a coquettish parasol. We suppose the faces they hide are pretty—they ought to be, certainly, if they look out from, or are hidden by one of MIDDLETON'S parasols. He has beautiful ones, with pearly inlaid handles, for pearly and rosy hands to clasp. The ladies all know where to go for parasols of any kind.—He has a very large stock, at prices ranging from 25 cents to five dollars. See advertisement.

RELIGION AND POLITICS.—President MAHAN will preach next Sabbath evening, at the Spring Street Congregational Church, on Christianity in its relations to Politics, and especially the to Nebraska Bill. The known ability of the speaker, and the interest of the subject at this time, should secure him a full house.

WILLIAM WESTLAKE offers a beautiful street lamp for sale. See notice.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT.—A little girl was very seriously injured on Wednesday afternoon by getting her foot crushed between the draw of Walker's Point Bridge, and the abutment.—The flesh was almost entirely stripped from the foot. She was conveyed home in much suffering, and it being ascertained that she was in poor circumstances, a subscription was started among the liberal men around the docks and warehouses, and a handsome sum raised for her benefit.—Sentinel.

COLLISION.—On Wednesday night last, the steamer Traveler, while on her way to this city from Sheboygan, ran into the schooner Kirk White, bound for this port from Buffalo, with a load of coal, damaging her seriously. The schooner was struck in the larboard side, near the fore rigging, and cut severely. She commenced filling with water immediately, but by shifting her deck load and using the pump vigorously she was kept from sinking. She was taken in tow by the Traveler, and brought into port. The collision occurred during a fog, and the steamer was only moving at the rate of six miles an hour.

ANOTHER VESSEL.—Another new schooner has just been commenced at Capt. BARBER'S ship-yard for JAS. STRONNER, of Manistee.—She is to run in the lumber trade, and her dimensions are to be as follows: keel 90 ft., beam 23 ft., hold 7¼ feet.

Capt. JONES has commenced the construction of D. NEWHALL'S new vessel.

SALE OF REAL ESTATE.—Half lot, 25 feet by 100, on South Water Street, Fifth Ward, belonging to Donald McLeod, deceased, was sold, at administrator's sale, yesterday, to T. R. Roddis, for $800.

NATIONAL GUARDS—The weekly meeting of this Military Company, for business, takes place in the Phenix Building, this evening.

MARINE.—The schr. Nebraska arrived here, last night, with 170 tons of R. R. iron, of which 904 bars are for the M. & W. R. R Co.

The brig Robert Burns brought up 940 bars, 676 of which are for the M. & M. Co., and 322 for the Green Bay, Milwaukee & Chicago Co.

The Prop. Edith for Buffalo, and the Bark Hungarian for Oswego, have cleared with cargoes of produce.

The Prop. Westmoreland, which lay in this port during the past winter, came in from Buffalo, with a large cargo, this forenoon. She touched bottom several times in coming up the river.

WE notice that the foundation of Nazro & Co's. new store has been commenced.

Workmen are also busy preparing for the construction of Mack, Oettinger & Co's. new building, opposite Throop & Bailey's store.

FIGHT.—An extensive fight, between some less than 100 persons, of both sexes and all ages, came off on Huron street, last night. The fight grew out of a quarrel between two children, and was concluded by the interference of the Marshal. Such scenes may be gratifying to the participants, but they are not very interesting to the community, generally.

FOUND DEAD—In the woods, near the tavern of Mrs. Dræson, in Granville, this County, a German, covered up with leaves, with marks of violence on his person. He was supposed to have been looking land in town 12, with a view to purchase. We have not learned his name.

A correspondent of the Burlington Free Press gives an amusing account of a baby show in Bytown, Canada, on the 2d inst. The prizes were $60 each to the three largest, fattest, and handsomest babies in the town of March.—There were but two babies presented, one 16 and the other 17 months old, each of whom received a prize. After some appropriate speeches by the judges, one of the lucky mothers made the announcement that "she should have another baby to show at the same time and place, next year, if there was a premium to be given," which caused rounds of applause.

THE RUSSIAN SHORES OF THE BLACK SEA—Giving also the character of the contending party—the Russians—and a good map.

RUSSIA AS IT IS—This Book needs no recommendation; it speaks for itself. I need only say that the author gives an interesting account of the customs, manners, sentiments, opinions and aspirations of the Russians.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

Arrival of the America.

HALIFAX, May 24.—The steamship America, Capt. Long, arrived 7 P. M. Negotiations for an alliance, offensive and defensive, between Sweeden and the Western Powers, are about to be concluded. Spain and Portugal, it is said, are also willing to join these Powers, and furnish a contingent.

The Arab Chief Yessuf, with 1,000 followers, have embarked for Turkey. Fourteen Russian merchantmen have been captured in the Black Sea.

A correspondent of the Times, writing from Carlscrono, says that an English frigate was reported ashore in the vicinity, and her captain and crew prisoners.

Paris Bourse firm on Thursday. National Discount offices had lowered rates of discount 1 per cent.

ODESSA, May 10.—The inhabitants are beginning to return, and places of business are open again. The Banks are removed some distance from town.

The Bank of England on the 10th inst., raised its rate of discount to 5½ per cent, and the Bank of France reduced its rate to 4½ per cent.—Since the 1st of February, the bullion in the Bank of France has increased four millions and decreased the same amount in the Bank of England.

The official accounts of the bombardment of Odessa, have been received. It was destructive, though far from decisive. The attacking force consisted of 5 English and 4 French War-steamers, and a detachment of English rocket boats. The steamers kept up their fire for 12 hours, within 2,000 yards of the batteries, throwing hot shot, and the boats 24 pound rockets, to fire the shipping.

The red hot shot from the British Steamer Terrible blew up the Russian Magazines on the Imperial Mall, and silenced a formidable battery. A Russian frigate, two sloops of war, and 12 ships in the harbor, were fired, and burnt to the water's edge. The rockets also, set fire to the lower part of the city, which burnt for two days. Three of the attacking steamers were disabled. The loss of the Allied fleets was only 20, killed and wounded. The Russians had 20 killed, and 60 wounded.

It was rumored that the intention of attacking Sebastopol, had been abandoned for the present.

The report of a steamer having been seen, and supposed to be the City of Glagow, is fully confirmed.

LATER.—No more battles between the armies on the Black Sea, or in the Baltic. Great preparations still going on in France and England.

Austria remains neutral. Neutral vessels not allowed to leave Odessa till hostile fleets had gone.

Further by the Franklin.

A French steamer with a Turkish division sunk near Salonica.

A small squadron of ships of war was being prepared by the British for operations in the White Sea and for an attack upon Archangel

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 30.—Admiral Boyer arrived here yesterday.

After the bombardment of Odessa, the united fleets left to cruise before Sevastopol. The Banshee, which has arrived from Varna, brings no news.

A rumor is current at Galata, that the bombardment of Sevastopol began on the 28th, but the statement requires confirmation.

FRANKFORT, Tuesday, May 9.—The Austrian Government has opened a subscription here and at Amsterdam, for Three Millions and a Half Sterling.

COPENHAGEN, Monday Evening, May 9.—The British fleet has been reinforced by Prince Regent 90 and Cumberland 70, both just arrived from England, with French liner Austerlitz, 100, in company. They sailed from Elsnabben on Thursday morning. The French squadron did not anchor in Wingo Sound, but proceeded immediately up the Baltic to join the British fleet.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, May 25. — Senator Seward presented the credentials of Francis Gillette, the new Senator from Connecticut, for the short term. Mr. Gillette was sworn in and took his seat.

A resolution passed appropriating medals and money to the British seamen who relieved Lieut. Strain on the Isthmus.

The Nebraska bill was taken up.

NEW YORK, May 22.—In the Ninth Ward of this city, considerable excitement has prevailed among liquor dealers to-day, the Aldermen and Councilmen having refused licenses to every one who applied. There were about two hundred and fifty applicants.

THE FAR-FAMED MEDICINE!

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS!

THESE PILLS being composed entirely of medicinal herbs are of a most harmless nature, while the extraordinary virtues they possess have rendered them universally popular in nearly every part of the world. The immense success they have met with throughout the States is most extraordinary, owing, it is presumed, to their wonderful efficacy in the cure of Billious complaints and disorders of the Liver and Stomach. Persons who persevere in using them in accordance with the directions, seldom fail in being restored to health.

Weakness and Debility.—Restoration to Health of a Gentleman, aged 45, when at Death's Door.

Copy of a Letter from the Rev. Charles Smith, dated Norton, St. Philips, near Bath, Somersetshire, Aug. 17, 1853.

To PROFESSOR HOLLOWAY—

SIR: A Mr. Joseph Paxton, formerly a resident of this place, had been in a declining state of health for upwards of three years, gradually wasting away to a shadow by nightly perspirations and want of appetite, which caused great uneasiness to his friends, as he had consulted various medical men in Bath, without effect. He at last used your Pills, and under Providence was restored to health by their means. He lately emigrated to New York, and has just written to say, that he was never better in health, and desired me to acquaint you with the circumstance. I ought also to mention, that my wife had derived great benefit from the use of your Pills.

I remain, sir, yours respectfully,

CHAS. SMITH, Dissenting Minister.

A Permanent Cure of a Diseased Liver, of Many Years' Duration.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Gamis, Chemist, Yeovil, to Professor Holloway.

Dear Sir: In this district your Pills command a more extensive sale than any other proprietary medicine before the public. As a proof of their efficacy in Liver and Bilious Complaints, I may mention the following case: A lady of this town, with whom I am personally acquainted, for years was a severe sufferer from disease of the Liver and digestive organs. Her medical attendant assured her that he could do nothing to relieve her sufferings, and it was not likely she could survive many months. This announcement naturally caused great alarm among her friends and relations, and they induced her to make a trial of your Pills, which so improved her general health, that she was induced to continue them until she received a perfect cure. This was twelve months ago, and she has not experienced any symptoms of relapse, and often declares that your Pills have been the means of saving her life. I remain, Dear Sir, yours truly,

July 2d, 1853. (Signed) J. GAMIS.

These celebrated Pills are wonderfully efficacious in the following complaints:

Ague	Dropsy	Inflammation	Sore Throats
Asthma	Dysentery	Jaundice	Stone & gravel
Billious Complaints	Erysipelas	Liver Complaints	Secondary symptoms
Blotches on the Skin	Female Irregularities	Lumbago	Tic Douloureux
Bowel complaints	Fevers of all kinds	Piles	Tumors
Colics	Fits	Rheumatism	Ulcers
Constipation of the Bowels	Gout	Retention of Urine	Venereal Affections
Consumption	Head-ache	Scrofula or King's Evil	Worms of all kinds
	Indigestion
	Debility

Weakness from whatever cause, &c., &c.

Sold at the establishment of Professor HOLLOWAY, 244 Strand, (near Temple Bar,) London, and also at his House in New York. Orders for Medicines in the States, addressed "T. HOLLOWAY, New York," will receive due attention. Sold also also by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines throughout the United States, in Boxes at 37½ cts., 87 cts. and $1.50 cts. each. To be had Wholesale at the principal Drug houses in the Union.

☞ There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

MASQUERADE OF FREEDOM.

When Freedom first appeared beneath,
Right simple was the garb she wore,
Her brows were circled with a wreath,
Such as the Grecian victors bore:
Her vesture all of spotless white,
Her aspect stately and serene;
And so she moved in all men's sight
As lovely as a Maiden Queen

And queenlike, long she ruled the throng,
As ancient records truly tell:
Their strength she took not from the strong,
But taught them how to use it well.
Her presence graced the peasant's floor,
As freely as the noble's hall;
And aye the humbler was the door,
The still more welcome was her call.

But simple manners rarely range
Beyond the simpler ages' ken,
And ev'n the Virtues sometimes change
Their vesture and their looks, like men.
Pride, noble once, grows close and vain,
And Honor stoops to vulgar things,
And old Obedience slacks the rein
And murmurs at the rule of kings.

So Freedom, like her sisters too,
Has felt the impulse of the time,
Has changed her garments' blameless hue,
And donn'd the colors dear to crime,
First in a Phrygian cap she stalked,
And bore within her grasp the sphere;
And ever when abroad she walk'd,
Men knew Revenge was following near.

She moves again—the death-drums roll,
The frantic mob their chorus raise,
The thunder of the Carmagnole—
The war-chant of the Marseillaise!
Red run the streets with blameless blood—
The guillotine comes clanking down—
And Freedom, in her drunken mood,
Can witness all without a frown.

BOOTH'S INK FOR SCHOOLS.
EAST SAGINAW, Mich, Aug. 29, 1853.
W. W. BOOTH:
Dear Sir—I feel myself to be under weighty obligations to you for the dozen bottles of your Superior Black Ink. Several bottles are being used in my school, with most gratifying satisfaction. We hear not that common complaint of "poor pens," which we so often hear where an inferior or ordinary article of ink is used. 'Tis not its jetty, black, and shining smooth surface, alone, that gives it a superiority over other articles of the same name, but the readiness with which it always flows from the pen, and the property which effectually prevents metallic pens from corroding, under all ordinary circumstances. I can most cheerfully recommend its introduction into our primary schools as being precisely adapted to the use of children.
Respectfully Yours, &c.,
J. O. SELDON, Principal of Buena Vista Academy, East Saginaw, Mich.
To W. W. BOOTH, Druggist, Fentonville, Mich.

CITY LAND OFFICE.
A DARK DAY IS BEFORE US!
THERE will be an extraordinary Eclipse of the sun on the 26th day of this present May 1854 such as none but the oldest inhabitants in this country have witnessed. It will be very much similar to the Great Eclipse of 1806 (which I cannot exactly recollect) but all the cows came home and the chickens went to roost—so Grand Ma said.
But what has the Eclipse to do with Real Estate—What is more bright and beautiful than Milwaukee. Let none allow themselves to slumber, but arouse yourselves and secure homes for your families before it is TOO LATE! For property in Milwaukee will be worth double its present price as soon as all our Railroads are completed and that magnificent Hotel (which will soon be under way) is built. What made Chicago what she now is and what has increased her property? The Railroads and Hotels! So has Cleveland been benefitted in the same way, and so will Milwaukee receive her reward. We are bound to have One Hundred Thousand inhabitants in ten years all around. Nothing can prevent it. Where is a more beautiful city to be found, surrounded by a country densely populated by energetic and thorough farmers, from all parts of the World—and as for Commercial and Mechanical operations, we have no equal this side of the Mountains! Our Water Power! What Western City can compare with it? So now take advice and secure yourselves homes, and be prepared for the Great Real Estate Sale, which comes off June 6th. I would also say to those who want to avail themselves of the benefit of this Sale to send in their list of lots before the 15th of May. I want to have my catalogue ready by the 20th.
